Insurance – Visiting Trainers and Connections

If you employ workers in Australia, you may need to have a Worker's Compensation Insurance Policy.

Visiting workers may already be covered by an existing Worker's Compensation Insurance Policy taken out by their employer in their usual business jurisdiction. Trainers should make enquiries with their insurer or broker regarding the territorial limits of cover offered by any existing Worker's Compensation Policy'.

Visiting Trainers are required to have Public Liability & Professional Indemnity insurance ("PLI/PI") that is sufficient to cover their racing and horse activities whilst in Australia. Visiting Trainers should make enquiries of their insurer or broker regarding the territorial limits and adequacy of any existing PLI/PI policy held.

It is recommended that Visiting Trainers and horse connections also contact their broker or insurer to ensure that they have appropriate insurance arrangements in place to cover travel or non-work related injury and illness while in Australia.

Read and acknowledge the below and sign in section 9:
